

70 May Christ Be Seen In Me

Lois Dehoff

Evelyn Baer

1. O Lord, I give my self to Thee, And all that I pos - sess; I
 2. I fol - low Je - sus to the cross And see His blood - y fate; O
 3. O hum - bly may I serve Thee, Lord, As in Thy will I tread; And lay a - side my sin - ful pride, And claim Thy /right - eous - ness. My may I count all gain but loss; In me Thy heart cre - ate. Then may I live a - new in Christ, As ris - en from the dead. Then will lies shat - tered at Thy feet. I pray Thy will be done; My lead me, Lord, up Cal - v'ry's hill To suf - fer death for Thee, To close - ly walk - ing by Thy side, May I Thy ves - sel be, That on - ly plea, to live for Thee And mag - ni - fy Thy Son.

 make a liv - ing sac - ri - fice, As Thou didst die for me.
 those whom Thou shalt lead my way May too find life in Thee.

Chorus

May Christ be seen in me, O Lord; Hear Thou my ear - nest plea. O take me, fill me, use me, Lord, Till Christ be seen in me.

My Song 71

Bob Jones

Joan Pinkston

1. Thou, Whom ser - vant's joy in prais - ing, Thou, Whom an - gel hosts a - dore.
 2. All un - done by sin and e - vil, Child of con - dem - na - tion I,
 3. Heir of heav - en Thou hast made me, Bought me with Thy pre - cious blood,

Can my stam - m'ring tongue be si - lent When I owe Thee so much more.
 Yet Thou laid a - side Thy glo - ry And for me came down to die,
 Took the form of man up - on Thee That I might be child of God.

Chorus

So my song... must swell the cho - rus... While the an - gels' prais - es... ring...

I, a sin - ner saved and par - doned, Have more cause than they to sing.
